GOV. EASLEY APPOINTS JOHNSON AND WOOLARD TO AUCTIONEERS COMMISSION

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley has appointed Willie A. Johnson of Greensboro and Jean W. Woolard of Plymouth to the N.C. Auctioneers Commission.

Johnson is an auctioneer and owner of Willie Johnson Auctioneer & Associates and a realtor and owner of Willie Johnson Realty. He is president of the N.C. Auctioneers Association and a member of the National Auctioneers Association, National Realtors Association, N.C. Realtors Association and Greensboro Regional Realtors Association. Johnson served in the U.S. Army and is a Vietnam veteran. He attended Guilford Technical Community College and N.C. A&T State University.

Woolard is a retired public school teacher from Plymouth High School. She is a member of the N.C. Association of Educators and the National Education Association. Woolard received her bachelor's and master's degrees in secondary education from East Carolina University.

The commission protects the public from incompetent or unqualified persons engaging in auctioneering activities and preventing deceitful practices, willful misinterpretations or fraudulent and dishonest dealings. The commission has five members, each serving a three-year term. The governor appoints all members.
